

Privacy Policy

TFKable respects the privacy of users and visitors to company's Web sites. This document defines the practices used by TFKable in respect of personal data, how they are collected, the purposes for which they may be used, and persons that the data are intended for. For the purposes of this document, TFKable shall be defined by all the production plants located in Europe and its branches together with their distribution networks, covering the areas of international sales regions. The Board of TFKable means the Management Board of TELE-FONIKA Kable SA, the parent company within the Capital Group.

All the TFKable websites serve a specific purpose and have characteristics assigned to them. If there appears the need to collect personal information on one of TFKable websites, TFKable will inform you about this via appropriate TFKable website.

Personal data

As a general rule, most TFKable websites do not require giving your personal information. It may, however, happen that TFKable will need your personal data to best meet your requirements, for example, to obtain mailing data, to respond to your question or for other similar purposes. Personal data may include your first name, last name, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses and other information.

Collection of personal data

TFKable will collect your personal data for specific, clearly defined and legitimate purposes. TFKable will not treat your personal data in a way that is incompatible with those purposes. When collecting personal data, TFKable shall inform the person concerned at the time of or before collecting the data, or at least before it uses the data for a specific purpose. TFKable is committed to collecting only the data that are adequate, relevant and not going beyond the purpose for which they are collected. If necessary, TFKable will take all reasonable steps to verify the accuracy and timeliness of data collected.

Use of personal data

TFKable uses personal data within the strict limits of the purposes for which the data are collected. For example, TFKable may use personal data to:

- Inform you about products and services;
- To communicate, develop and trade with you.

TFKable obliges not to use your personal data without the prior consent to carry out the trade prospecting.

Personal data recipients

The recipients of your personal data are only persons who for reasons of professional activities are required to have this information. TFKable may share your personal data with third parties which are suppliers of goods or services. Suppliers of goods and services are required under the agreement to maintain the confidentiality and security of your personal data, and to use personal data only for the services which they were assigned to provide. TFKable shall not sell nor rent you personal data without your consent, except when it is dictated by a court decision, the applicable law or will be required to protect the rights and goods of the Company.

Retention period

TFKable shall not retain your personal data longer than is necessary to achieve the purposes for which the data were collected or longer than is laid down by law. The right to access, modify or oppose You have the right to ask TFKable for access to your personal data held by TFKable, to update or delete them. You also have the possibility to object TFKable Group to the collection or disclosure of your personal data. In order to exercise this right, please forward the relevant information via e-mail: daneosobowe@tfkable.com

Data security

TFKable has taken measures to ensure the confidentiality, security and integrity of your personal data. Access to personal data is limited to persons who for reasons of professional activities are required to have this information, and who are required to comply with these rules. TFKable places strong emphasis to ensure that your personal data are not changed, compromised, or misused by third parties, that are not authorized to access the data.

Cookies

Cookies, which are files that are stored by your Web browser on your computer's hard drive, are used by TFKable to collect the data related to the way in which you use company's websites in order to improve our services offered to visitors and users of the sites. Cookies cannot be used to identify your identity.
